Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Charles J. Silva, Jr., who is delivering the opinion on the validity of the Shares referred to in Item 8 hereof, is the Corporation's General Counsel and is a full time employee of the Corporation. He is also eligible to participate in the Corporation's benefit plans offered to employees generally, on the same basis as other employees. He beneficially owns or has rights to acquire beneficial ownership of less than 0.1% of the Corporation's Class A common stock.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law provides that a corporation has the power to indemnify a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation and certain other persons serving at the request of the corporation in related capacities against amounts paid and expenses incurred in connection with an action or proceeding to which he or she is or is threatened to be made a party by reason of such position, if such person shall have acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and in any criminal proceeding, if such person had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful; provided that, in the case of actions brought by or in the right of the corporation, no indemnification shall be made with respect to any matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the adjudicating court determines that such indemnification is proper under the circumstances.

Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, as amended, permits a corporation to include in its certificate of incorporation a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that such provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (relating to unlawful payment of dividends and unlawful stock purchase and redemption), or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Article V of the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation provides that, to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law, no director of the Corporation shall be liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director.

Article IV of the Corporation's By-Laws require that the Corporation indemnify any person who is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, or who is called or threatened to be called to give testimony (whether during pre-trial discovery, at trial or otherwise) in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding of any kind, whether civil, criminal or investigative, including an action by or in the right of the Corporation, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against costs, expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if (i) such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, (ii) such person did not personally gain, as a result of the acts or omissions to which such action, suit or proceeding relates, a financial profit or other financial advantage to which such person was not legally entitled and, (iii) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, such person had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not meet the standards of conduct set forth in the preceding sentence.

The Corporation has also entered into indemnification agreements with each of its directors, pursuant to which it is generally obligated to indemnify each director against all expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement by such director and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with any suit, action, or other proceeding to which he or she is made a party due to his or her status as a director, provided that he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect any criminal proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct to be unlawful. The agreements also set forth the procedures pursuant to which claims for indemnification are resolved. A form of indemnification agreement was filed as Exhibit 10(t) to the Corporation's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on April 12, 2006.

The Corporation has also purchased directors' and officers' liability insurance covering certain liabilities incurred by directors and officers in connection with the performance of their duties.

Certain of the Corporation's benefit plans also provide that, in addition to such other rights of indemnification they may have as directors, the Corporation shall indemnify and save harmless any member of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors against reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding, or in connection with an appeal therein, to which they or any of them may be a party by reason of any action taken or failure to act under or in connection with the plan or award granted thereunder and against all amounts paid by them settlement thereof (provided such settlement is approved by independent legal counsel selected by the Corporation) or paid by them in satisfaction of a judgment in any such action, suit or proceeding, except in relation to matters as to which it shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding that such Committee member is liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duties; provided that within sixty days after institution of any such action, suit or proceeding, a Committee member shall in writing offer the Company the opportunity, at its own expense, to handle and defend the same.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The Corporation hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement ;

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with the Commission by the Corporation pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; and

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The Corporation hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Corporation's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at the time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(h) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Corporation pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Corporation has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Corporation of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Corporation in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Corporation will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Albany International Corp.
216 Airport Drive
Rochester, NH 03867

Dear Sirs:

As General Counsel of Albany International Corp., a Delaware corporation (the "Corporation"), I have advised the Corporation in connection with the preparation and filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), of a Registration Statement on Form S-8 (the "Registration Statement") relating to the registration of 100,000 shares of the Corporation's Class A Common Stock, $.001 par value per share (the "Shares"), that may be issued pursuant to the Corporation's Directors Annual Retainer Plan (the "Plan").

In arriving at the opinions expressed below, I have examined and relied on the originals or copies certified or otherwise identified to my satisfaction of all such corporate records of the Corporation and such other instruments and other certificates of public officials, officers and representatives of the Corporation and such other persons, and I have made such investigations of law, as I have deemed appropriate as a basis for the opinions expressed below. In rendering the opinions expressed below, I have assumed and have not verified that the signatures on all documents that I have examined are genuine and that the certificates evidencing the Shares will conform to the specimen certificate I have examined.

Based on the foregoing, it is my opinion that shares of Class A Common Stock of the Corporation distributed by the Corporation to directors pursuant to the terms of the Plan will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully-paid and non-assessable, provided, in the case of any previously unissued shares, that the fair market value of such shares on their issuance is not less than the par value thereof.

I express no opinion other than as to the federal law of the United States of America, the law of the State of New York and the corporation law of the State of Delaware.

I hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to the Registration Statement.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Charles J. Silva, Jr
Charles J. Silva, Jr.

Consent of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors
Albany International Corp.:

We consent to the use of our reports with respect to the consolidated financial statements, and the related financial statement schedule, and the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting incorporated by reference herein.

Our report dated March 1, 2017, on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2016, expresses our opinion that Albany International Corp. did not maintain effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2016 because of the effect of material weaknesses on the achievement of the objectives of the control criteria and contains an explanatory paragraph that states that material weaknesses have been identified and included in management's assessment. The material weaknesses related to ineffective controls associated with the establishment of reporting lines, appropriate authorities, responsibilities and monitoring activities for financial reporting processes and internal controls at a foreign sales location and certain other foreign locations; ineffective controls associated with the assignment of banking signatory authorities, limits and responsibilities at a foreign sales location and certain other foreign locations; a lack of effective written entity and process level controls over initiation, authorization, processing and recording of transactions and safeguarding of assets managed by a third party service provider at a foreign sales location; and ineffective management review controls over the assessment of a potential reserve for a loss contract due to a failure to understand and document the design requirements and operation of an effective management review control.

Our report dated March 1, 2017, on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2016, also contains an explanatory paragraph that states management excluded from its assessment of the effectiveness of Albany International Corp.'s internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2016, the internal control over financial reporting related to the acquired business of Albany Aerostructures Composites, LLC associated with total assets of $252.5 million (of which $137.5 million represents goodwill and intangibles included within the scope of the assessment) and total revenues of $67.0 million included in the consolidated financial statements of Albany International Corp. as of and for the year ended December 31, 2016, and that our audit of internal control over financial reporting of Albany International Corp. also excluded an evaluation of the internal control over financial reporting of Albany Aerostructures Composites, LLC.
