CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference contain “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). The words “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “estimate,” “project,” “look for,” “will,” “should,” “guidance,” “guide” and variations of such words or similar expressions are intended, but are not the exclusive means, to identify forward-looking statements. - Conditions in the industries in which our Machine Clothing and Albany Engineered Composites segments compete, along with the general risks associated with macroeconomic conditions, including continuation of COVID-19 pandemic effects for an extended period of time;
- In the Machine Clothing segment, greater than anticipated declines in the demand for publication grades of paper or lower than anticipated growth in other paper grades;
- In the Albany Engineered Composites segment, a longer than expected timeframe for the aerospace industry to utilize existing inventories, and unanticipated reductions in demand, delays, technical difficulties, or cancellations in aerospace programs that are expected to generate revenue and drive long-term growth;
- Failure to achieve or maintain anticipated profitable growth in our Albany Engineered Composites segment; and
- Other risks and uncertainties detailed in our Annual Reports on Form 10-K and other periodic reports.

The forward-looking statements contained in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus, the documents incorporated by reference or elsewhere are based on our current expectations and assumptions regarding our business, the economy and other future conditions and are subject to risks, uncertainties and changes in circumstances that may cause events or our actual activities or results to differ significantly from those expressed in any forward-looking statement. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, we cannot guarantee future events, results, actions, levels of activity, performance or achievements. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated by the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and we undertake no obligation to update them publicly in light of new information or future events.

This summary does not contain all the information that you should consider before investing in our Class A Common Stock. You should read the entire prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus carefully, as well as the additional materials described under the captions "Where You Can Find More Information" and "Incorporation By Reference" in this prospectus supplement and in the accompanying prospectus and "Risk Factors" beginning on page S-7 of this prospectus supplement, page 2 of the accompanying prospectus and in Part I, Item 1A of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2020.

Our Business

Albany International Corp. and its subsidiaries are engaged in two business segments.

The Machine Clothing ("MC") segment supplies permeable and impermeable belts used in the manufacture of paper, paperboard, tissue and towel, pulp, nonwovens, fiber cement and several other industrial applications.

We design, manufacture, and market paper machine clothing (used in the manufacturing of paper, paperboard, tissue, and towel) for each section of the paper machine and for every grade of paper. We manufacture and sell approximately twice as much paper machine clothing worldwide than any other company. Paper machine clothing products are customized, consumable products of technologically sophisticated design that utilize polymeric materials in a complex structure. The design and material composition of paper machine clothing can have a considerable effect on the quality of paper products produced and the efficiency of the paper machines on which it is used. Principal paper machine clothing products include forming, pressing, and drying fabrics, and process belts. A forming fabric assists in paper sheet formation and conveys the very wet sheet (more than 75 percent water) through the forming section. Pressing fabrics are designed to carry the sheet through the press section, where water is pressed from the sheet as it passes through the press nip. In the drying section, drying fabrics manage air movement and hold the sheet against heated cylinders to enhance drying. Process belts are used in the press section to increase dryness and enhance sheet properties, as well as in other sections of the machine to improve runnability and enhance sheet qualities.

The MC segment also supplies engineered fabrics used in the manufacturing process in the pulp, corrugator, nonwovens, fiber cement, building products, and tannery and textile industries.

The MC segment sells its products directly to customer end-users in countries across the globe. MC products, manufacturing processes, and distribution channels for MC are substantially the same in each region of the world in which we operate. The sales of paper machine clothing forming, pressing, and drying fabrics, individually and in the aggregate, accounted for more than 10 percent of our consolidated Net sales during one or more of the last three years. No individual customer accounted for as much as 10 percent of MC segment Net sales in any of the periods presented. A majority of our MC segment's Net sales in the year ended December 31, 2020 were for use in the production of the growing grades of tissue, containerboard, other paper categories, and other engineered fabrics, while less than 20% of our MC segment's Net sales were for the production of the declining newsprint and printing and writing papers categories.

The Albany Engineered Composites ("AEC") segment, including Albany Safran Composites, LLC ("ASC"), in which our customer SAFRAN Group owns a 10 percent noncontrolling interest, provides highly engineered, advanced composite structures to customers in the commercial and defense aerospace industries. AEC's largest aerospace customer is the SAFRAN Group, and sales to SAFRAN (consisting primarily of fan blades and cases for CFM International's LEAP engine) accounted for approximately 11 percent of the company's consolidated Net sales in 2020. AEC, through ASC, is the exclusive supplier to the LEAP program of advanced composite fan blades and cases under a long-term supply contract. The LEAP engine is used on the Airbus A320neo and Boeing 737 MAX family of jets. Other significant programs served by AEC include the F-35, Boeing 787, Sikorsky CH-53K, and JASSM programs. AEC also supplies vacuum waste tanks for the Boeing 7-Series programs and specialty components for the Rolls Royce lift fan on the F-35, as well as the fan case for the GE9X engine. In 2020, approximately 46 percent of the AEC segment's sales were related to U.S. government contracts or programs.

We are incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware and are the successor to a New York corporation originally incorporated in 1895, which was merged into the company in August 1987 solely for the purpose of

Selling Stockholders

As of July 28, 2021, Standish Family Holdings, LLC and J.S. Standish Company (collectively, the "Selling Stockholders") and related persons (including Christine L. Standish, a director of the company, and John C. Standish) (together with the Standish Trust, as defined below, the "Standish Family") held in the aggregate shares of our Class B Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share (the "Class B Common Stock"), entitling them to cast approximately 34.5 percent of the combined votes entitled to be cast by all stockholders of the company. It has been more than 20 years since Spencer Standish stepped down from the role of chairman of the company and more than four years since his passing. In the second quarter of 2019, the Selling Stockholders executed a secondary offering of their stockholdings in the company. As a result of such offering, 1,616,000 shares of Class B Common Stock previously owned by the Selling Stockholders were converted to Class A Common Stock and sold to third parties in a registered offering. Based solely on information contained in a report on Schedule 13D/A filed by the Standish Family on July 22, 2021, the Standish Family announced that, although they continue to have confidence in the company's management and its strategy, they expect to make additional sales of shares in the company to continue to achieve diversification and estate planning objectives for the next generation of the Standish family, taking into consideration potential upcoming increases to the capital gains tax rate.

The Selling Stockholders are offering 1,566,644 shares of Class B Common Stock in this offering, which would automatically convert to an equal number of shares of Class A Common Stock upon any such sale. Prior to the closing of this offering, Standish Family Holdings, LLC will transfer 50,000 shares of Class B Common Stock to J. Spencer Standish Discretionary Trust for Christine L. Standish U/A/D 6/21/83 (the "Standish Trust"), and the shares of Class B Common Stock transferred to the Standish Trust and all remaining shares of Class B Common Stock held by the Standish Family will be converted into Class A Common Stock (the "conversion"), in accordance with the company's amended and restated certificate of incorporation. After this offering, the Standish Family will hold in the aggregate 58,179 shares of Class A Common Stock, and we expect to have 32,379,523 shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding and 1,154 shares of Class B Common Stock outstanding, each of which is convertible at any time into an equal number of shares of Class A Common Stock. The shares of Class B Common Stock expected to be outstanding after this offering are held by former members of the company's management and not the Standish Family.

In connection with this offering, on August 5, 2021, directors Christine L. Standish and Lee C. Wortham notified the Board of Directors of the company (the "Board") of their decision to resign from the Board and all committees of the Board, effective upon the closing of this offering. Following their resignations, until further action by the Board, the number of directors of the company shall be seven. Christine L. Standish serves on the Governance Committee of the Board, and Lee C. Wortham serves on the Compensation Committee of the Board.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in our Class A Common Stock involves a high degree of risk. You should consider carefully the following risks and other risks and uncertainties described under "Risk Factors" in Part I, Item 1A of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2020, as such discussion may be amended or updated in other reports filed by us with the SEC, and in other documents that are incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus.

Risks Related to the Offering and our Class A Common Stock

The market price and trading volume of our Class A Common Stock may be volatile, which could result in rapid and substantial losses for our stockholders.

The market price of our Class A Common Stock may be highly volatile and could be subject to wide fluctuations. In addition, the trading volume in our Class A Common Stock may fluctuate and cause significant price variations to occur. If the market price of our Class A Common Stock declines significantly, you may be unable to resell your shares at or above your purchase price, if at all. The market price of our Class A Common Stock may fluctuate or decline significantly in the future. Some of the factors that could negatively affect our share price or result in fluctuations in the price or trading volume of our Class A Common Stock include:

- variations in our quarterly or annual operating results;
- changes in our earnings estimates (if provided) or differences between our actual financial and operating results and those expected by investors and analysts;
- the contents of published research reports about us or our industry or the failure of securities analysts to cover our Class A Common Stock;
- additions or departures of key management personnel;
- any increased indebtedness we may incur in the future;
- announcements by us or others and developments affecting us;
- actions by institutional stockholders;
- litigation and governmental investigations;
- changes in market valuations of similar companies;
- speculation or reports by the press or investment community with respect to us or our industry in general;
- increases in market interest rates that may lead purchasers of our shares to demand a higher yield;
- announcements by us or our competitors of significant contracts, acquisitions, dispositions, strategic relationships, joint ventures or capital commitments; and
- general market, political and economic conditions, including the ongoing impacts and developments relating to the COVID-19 pandemic and any such local conditions, impacts and developments in the markets in which our customers are located.

These broad market and industry factors may decrease the market price of our Class A Common Stock, regardless of our actual operating performance. The stock market in general has from time to time experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations, including in recent months. In addition, in the past, following periods of volatility in the overall market and the market price of a company's securities, securities class action litigation has often been instituted against these companies. This litigation, if instituted against us, could result in substantial costs and a diversion of our management's attention and resources.

Certain provisions of our Certificate of Incorporation, our Bylaws and Delaware law could hinder, delay or prevent a change in control of us that you might consider favorable, which could also adversely affect the price of our Class A Common Stock.

Certain provisions under our Certificate of Incorporation, our Bylaws and Delaware law could discourage, delay or prevent a transaction involving a change in control of our company, even if doing so would benefit our stockholders. These provisions could delay or prevent a change in control and could limit the price that investors might be willing to pay in the future for shares of Class A Common Stock.

Our certificate of incorporation authorizes our board of directors to issue new series of preferred stock without stockholder approval. For more information, see “Description of Capital Stock” in the accompanying prospectus. Depending on the rights and terms of any new series created, and the reaction of the market to the series, your rights or the value of your shares of Class A Common Stock could be negatively affected. For example, subject to applicable law, our board of directors could create a series of preferred stock with superior voting rights to our existing common stock. The ability of our board of directors to issue this new series of preferred stock could also prevent or delay a third party from acquiring us, even if doing so would be beneficial to our stockholders.

We may not pay cash dividends on our Class A Common Stock.

It is our current practice to pay cash dividends on our common stock. We cannot assure you, however, that we will pay dividends in the future in the amounts that we have in the past, or at all. Our board of directors may change the timing and amount of any future dividend payments or eliminate the payment of future dividends in its sole discretion, without any prior notice to our stockholders. Our ability to pay dividends will depend upon many factors, including our financial position and liquidity, results of operations, legal requirements, restrictions that may be imposed by the terms of our current and future credit facilities and other debt obligations and other factors deemed relevant by our board of directors. For example, we have a substantial amount of indebtedness, and while we feel that we generate sufficient cash from operations and have sufficient borrowing capacity to make required capital expenditures to maintain and grow our business, any decrease in our cash generation could result in higher leverage. Higher leverage could hinder our ability to make acquisitions, capital expenditures, or other investments in our businesses, pay dividends, or withstand business and economic downturns.

In the future, we may also enter into other credit agreements or other borrowing arrangements or issue debt securities that, in each case, restrict or limit our ability to pay cash dividends on our Class A Common Stock. In addition, since a significant portion of our cash is generated from operations of our subsidiaries, our ability to pay dividends is in part dependent on the ability of our subsidiaries – some of which are located outside of the United States – to make distributions to us. Such distributions will be subject to their operating results, cash requirements and financial condition, as well as our ability to repatriate cash held by non-U.S. subsidiaries. Any change in the level of our dividends or the suspension of the payment thereof could adversely affect the market price of our Class A Common Stock.

If securities or industry analysts do not publish research or publish inaccurate or unfavorable research about our business, our stock price and trading volume could decline.

The trading market for our Class A Common Stock depends in part on the research and reports that securities or industry analysts publish about us or our business. If one or more of the analysts who covers us downgrades our Class A Common Stock or publishes inaccurate or unfavorable research about our business, our stock price would likely decline. If one or more of these analysts ceases coverage of us or fails to publish reports on us regularly, demand for our Class A Common Stock could decrease, which could cause our stock price and trading volume to decline.

Future sales of shares by us or our existing stockholders could cause our stock price to decline.

Sales of substantial amounts of our common stock in the public market following this offering, or the perception that these sales could occur, could cause the market price of our common stock to decline or might make it more difficult for us to sell equity securities in the future at a time and at a price that we deem appropriate.

After this offering and the conversion of all remaining shares of Class B Common Stock held by the Standish Family into Class A Common Stock, we expect to have 32,379,523 shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding and 1,154 shares of Class B Common Stock outstanding, each of which is convertible at any time into an equal number of shares of Class A Common Stock. The shares of Class B Common Stock expected to be outstanding after this offering and the conversion are held by former members of the company’s management and not the Standish Family. In addition, shares of Class A Common Stock are issuable upon the exercise of outstanding stock options or the vesting of outstanding equity awards, and certain shares are reserved for future issuance under our equity compensation plans, as described in “Summary—The Offering.”

TABLE OF CONTENTS

In connection with the offering, our continuing directors, certain executive officers, Christine L. Standish, John C. Standish, the Standish Trust and the Selling Stockholders have entered into lock-up agreements with the underwriter pursuant to which each of them, with certain exceptions, for a period of 45 days after the date of this prospectus supplement, may not, without the prior written consent of the underwriter, sell, transfer, dispose of or hedge any shares of our common stock. Following the expiration of the lock-up period, any shares of common stock held by them may be sold into the public market, subject to compliance with the Securities Act and other applicable securities laws.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The Selling Stockholders will receive all of the net proceeds from the sale of shares of Class A Common Stock offered by them pursuant to this prospectus supplement. The aggregate proceeds to the Selling Stockholders from the sale of shares of Class A Common Stock will be the purchase price of the shares of Class A Common Stock less discounts and commissions. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of these shares of Class A Common Stock. The Selling Stockholders will bear the costs associated with this offering, including underwriting discounts and commissions. See “Selling Stockholders” and “Underwriting.”

DIVIDEND POLICY

It is our current practice to pay cash dividends on our common stock. We cannot assure you, however, that we will pay dividends in the future in these amounts or at all. Dividend declarations will be considered on a quarter-to-quarter basis by our board of directors. Our board of directors may change the timing and amount of any future dividend payments or eliminate the payment of future dividends in its sole discretion, without any prior notice to our stockholders. Our ability to pay dividends will depend upon many factors, including our financial position and liquidity, results of operations, legal requirements, restrictions that may be imposed by the terms of our current and future indebtedness and other factors deemed relevant by our board of directors.

In addition, since a significant portion of our cash is generated from operations of our subsidiaries, our ability to pay dividends is in part dependent on the ability of our subsidiaries – some of which are located outside of the United States – to make distributions to us. Their ability to make such distributions will be subject to their operating results, cash requirements and financial condition. For further discussion of the factors that may affect our ability to pay dividends, see “Risk factors—Risks related to the offering and our Class A Common Stock—We may not pay cash dividends on our Class A Common Stock.”

For a discussion of the application of withholding taxes on dividends, see “Material U.S. Federal Income and Estate Tax Considerations to Non-U.S. Holders.”

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC. These rules generally provide that a person is the beneficial owner of securities if such person has or shares the power to vote or direct the voting thereof, or to dispose or direct the disposition thereof or has the right to acquire such powers within 60 days. Upon the transfer of shares of Class B Common Stock as a result of this offering, all the shares sold will automatically convert to shares of Class A Common Stock, and the automatic conversion will become effective upon the transfer. Prior to the closing of this offering, Standish Family Holdings, LLC will transfer 50,000 shares of Class B Common Stock to the Standish Trust, and the shares of Class B Common Stock transferred to the Standish Trust and all remaining shares of Class B Common Stock held by the Standish Family will be converted into Class A Common Stock, in accordance with the company's amended and restated certificate of incorporation. Except as disclosed in the footnotes to the table below and subject to applicable community property laws, we believe that each stockholder identified in the table possesses sole voting and investment power over all shares of common stock shown as beneficially owned by the stockholder.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME AND ESTATE TAX CONSIDERATIONS TO NON-U.S. HOLDERS

The following discussion describes material U.S. federal income and estate tax considerations that are likely to be relevant to the purchase, ownership and disposition of our Class A Common Stock by Non-U.S. Holders. For purposes of this discussion, a “U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of our Class A Common Stock that is an individual citizen or resident of the United States, a domestic corporation or otherwise subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis with respect to income from our Class A Common Stock. A “Non-U.S. Holder” means any beneficial owner of our Class A Common Stock that is not a U.S. Holder.

This discussion deals only with shares of Class A Common Stock held as capital assets by Non-U.S. Holders who purchased Class A Common Stock in this offering. This discussion does not cover all aspects of U.S. federal taxation that may be relevant to the purchase, ownership or disposition of our Class A Common Stock by prospective investors in light of their specific facts and circumstances. In particular, this discussion does not address all of the tax considerations that may be relevant to persons in special tax situations, including banks, insurance companies or other financial institutions, dealers in securities, persons that have held or will hold more than 5% of our Class A Common Stock, certain former citizens or residents of the United States, “controlled foreign corporations” or “passive foreign investment companies,” persons holding our Class A Common Stock as part of a hedge, straddle, conversion or other integrated financial transaction, entities that are treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes (or partners therein), or persons that are otherwise subject to special treatment under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”). This section does not address any other U.S. federal tax considerations (such as gift taxes, or the Medicare tax on net investment income) or any state, local or non-U.S. tax considerations. You should consult your own tax advisors about the tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of our Class A Common Stock in light of your own particular circumstances, including the tax consequences under state, local, non-U.S. and other tax laws and the possible effects of any changes in applicable tax laws.

This discussion is based on the tax laws of the United States, including the Code, existing and proposed regulations, and administrative and judicial interpretations, all as currently in effect. Such authorities may be repealed, revoked, modified or subject to differing interpretations, possibly on a retroactive basis, so as to result in U.S. federal income tax or estate tax consequences different from those discussed below.

Dividends

As discussed in “Dividend Policy,” dividend declarations will be considered on a quarter-to-quarter basis by our board of directors. A distribution of cash or property with respect to our Class A Common Stock generally will be treated as a dividend to the extent paid out of our current or accumulated earnings and profits. If such a distribution exceeds our current and accumulated earnings and profits, the excess will be first treated as a tax-free return of your investment, up to your tax basis in the Class A Common Stock, and thereafter as a capital gain subject to the tax treatment described below in “—Sale, Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of Class A Common Stock.”

Dividends paid to you generally will be subject to withholding of U.S. federal income tax at a 30% rate, or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable tax treaty.

Even if you are eligible for a lower treaty rate, a withholding agent generally will be required to withhold at a 30% rate (rather than the lower treaty rate) unless you have furnished a valid Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E, or other documentary evidence establishing your entitlement to the lower treaty rate with respect to such dividend payments, and the withholding agent does not have actual knowledge or reason to know to the contrary.

In addition, under the U.S. tax rules known as the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (“FATCA”), you will generally be subject to a 30% U.S. withholding tax on dividends in respect of our Class A Common Stock if you are not FATCA compliant, or hold your Class A Common Stock through a foreign financial institution that is not FATCA compliant. In order to be treated as FATCA compliant, you must comply with certain information reporting requirements, including by providing certain documentation (usually an IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E) containing information about your identity, your FATCA status, and if required, your direct and indirect U.S. owners. These requirements may be modified by the adoption or implementation of a particular intergovernmental agreement between the United States and another country or by future U.S. Treasury Regulations. Information that you provide in order to be treated as FATCA compliant may be reported to the IRS and other tax authorities, including information about your identity, your FATCA status, and if applicable, your direct and indirect U.S. owners.

If you are eligible for a reduced rate of U.S. federal withholding tax pursuant to an applicable income tax treaty or otherwise, you may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld by timely filing an appropriate claim for refund with the IRS.

Investors should consult their own tax advisors about how these information reporting and withholding tax rules may apply to their investment in our Class A Common Stock.

Sale, Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of Class A Common Stock

You generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to gain recognized on a sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of our Class A Common Stock.

U.S. Federal Estate Tax

Shares of Class A Common Stock held (or deemed held) by an individual Non-U.S. Holder at the time of his or her death will be included in the Non-U.S. Holder's gross estate for U.S. federal estate tax purposes, unless an applicable estate tax treaty provides otherwise.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Information returns are generally required to be filed with the IRS with respect to payments of dividends that you receive. You may be required to comply with applicable certification procedures to establish that you are a Non-U.S. Holder in order to avoid the application of information reporting requirements with respect to gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of our Class A Common Stock, or backup withholding tax with respect to dividends or gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of our Class A Common Stock. Any amount paid as backup withholding may be creditable against your U.S. federal income tax liability or allowable as a refund, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

UNDERWRITING

The Selling Stockholders are offering the shares of Class A Common Stock described in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying base prospectus through the underwriter. We and the Selling Stockholders have entered into an underwriting agreement with the underwriter, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, dated the date of this prospectus supplement. Subject to the terms and conditions of the underwriting agreement, the Selling Stockholders have agreed to sell to the underwriter, and the underwriter has agreed to purchase, the number of shares of Class A Common Stock listed in the following table:

Name	Number of Shares
J.P. Morgan Securities LLC	1,566,644
Total	1,566,644

The underwriting agreement provides that the obligations of the underwriter to pay for and accept delivery of the shares of Class A Common Stock offered by this prospectus supplement are subject to the approval of certain legal matters by their counsel and to certain other conditions. The underwriter is committed to purchase all the shares offered by the Selling Stockholders if it purchases any shares.

The underwriter is purchasing the shares of Class A Common Stock from the Selling Stockholders at $75.9656 per share (representing $119,011,051.45 of aggregate proceeds to the Selling Stockholders). The underwriter proposes to offer the shares of Class A Common Stock from time to time for sale in one or more transactions on the NYSE, in the over-the-counter market, through negotiated transactions or otherwise, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices, subject to receipt and acceptance by it and subject to its right to reject any order in whole or in part. In connection with the sale of the shares of Class A Common Stock offered hereby, the underwriter may be deemed to have received compensation in the form of underwriting discounts. The underwriter may effect such transactions by selling shares of Class A Common Stock to or through dealers, and such dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the underwriter and/or purchasers of shares of Class A Common Stock for whom it may act as agents or to whom it may sell as principal. Sales of shares of Class A Common Stock made outside of the United States may be made by affiliates of the underwriter.

Expenses

The Selling Stockholders will bear the costs, including the underwriting discounts and commissions, associated with this offering. The estimated offering expenses of this offering are approximately $700,000, which includes legal, accounting and printing costs and various other fees associated with the registration of the Class A Common Stock to be sold pursuant to this prospectus supplement.

Lock-Up Agreements

We have agreed that, subject to certain exceptions, we will not (i) offer, pledge, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, or file with, or submit to, the SEC a registration statement under the Securities Act relating to, any shares of our common stock or securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for any shares of our common stock, or publicly disclose the intention to make any offer, sale, pledge, disposition or filing or (ii) enter into any swap or other agreement that transfers, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of our common stock or such other securities (regardless of whether any of these transactions are to be settled by the delivery of shares of common stock or such other securities, in cash or otherwise), without the prior written consent of the underwriter, for a period of 45 days after the date of this prospectus supplement.

Our continuing directors, certain executive officers, Christine L. Standish, John C. Standish, the Standish Trust and the Selling Stockholders have entered into lock-up agreements with the underwriter prior to the commencement of this offering pursuant to which each of these persons or entities, with certain exceptions, for a period of 45 days after the date of this prospectus supplement, may not, without the prior written consent of the underwriter, (1) offer, pledge, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any shares of our common stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for our common stock (including, without limitation, common stock or such other securities which may be deemed to be beneficially owned by such directors, executive officers, person and Selling Stockholders in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC and securities which may be issued upon exercise of a stock option or warrant) or (2) enter into any swap or other agreement that transfers, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of our common stock or such other securities, whether any such transaction described in clause (1) or (2) above is to be settled by delivery of common stock or such other securities, in cash or otherwise, or (3) make any demand for or exercise any right with respect to the registration of any shares of our common stock or any security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for our common stock.

Stabilization and Short Positions

In order to facilitate this offering of the Class A Common Stock, the underwriter may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of the Class A Common Stock. Specifically, the underwriter may sell more shares than they are obligated to purchase under the underwriting agreement, creating a naked short position. The underwriter can close out a naked short sale by purchasing shares in the open market. A naked short position is more likely to be created if the underwriter is concerned that there may be downward pressure on the price of the Class A Common Stock in the open market after pricing that could adversely affect investors who purchase in this offering. In addition, to stabilize the price of the shares of Class A Common Stock, the underwriter may bid for, and purchase, shares of Class A Common Stock in the open market. These activities may raise or maintain the market price of the Class A Common Stock above independent market levels or prevent or retard a decline in the market price of the Class A Common Stock. The underwriter is not required to engage in these activities and may end any of these activities at any time.

Indemnification

We, the Selling Stockholders and the underwriter have agreed to indemnify each other against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

Relationships

The underwriter and its affiliates are full-service financial institutions engaged in various activities, which may include securities trading, commercial and investment banking, financial advisory, investment management, investment research, principal investment, hedging, financing and brokerage activities.

From time to time, the underwriter and/or its affiliates may provide investment banking services to us. For example, under our $700 million unsecured four-year revolving credit facility, J.P. Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., an affiliate of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, acts as administrative agent and co-lead arranger and joint bookrunner. In the ordinary course of its various business activities, the underwriter and its affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers, and such investment and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the company. The underwriter and its affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or instruments and may at any time hold, or recommend to clients that it acquires, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments. The underwriter and its affiliates have in the past engaged, currently engage and may in the future engage, in transactions with and perform services for, including commercial banking, financial advisory and investment banking services, us and our affiliates in the ordinary course of business for which it has received or will receive customary fees and expenses. We also have, and expect to continue to have, economic hedges, cash management relationships and/or other swaps and hedges in place with the underwriter or its affiliates on customary economic terms.

Electronic Distribution

A prospectus supplement in electronic format may be made available on the web site maintained by the underwriter. The underwriter may agree to allocate a number of shares to its online brokerage account holders.

Selling Restrictions

Any resale of the shares must be made in accordance with an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the prospectus requirements of applicable securities laws.

Securities legislation in certain provinces or territories of Canada may provide a purchaser with remedies for rescission or damages if this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus (including any amendment thereto) contains a misrepresentation, provided that the remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser's province or territory. ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS

This prospectus is part of a registration statement that we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) utilizing an automatic shelf registration process. Under this shelf process, we or any selling stockholders may periodically sell the securities described in this prospectus in one or more offerings. This prospectus provides a general description of our stock that we or any selling stockholders may offer. Each time we or any selling stockholders offer securities, we or any selling stockholders will provide a prospectus supplement that will contain specific information about the terms of that offering. The prospectus supplement may also add, update or change information, including information about us, contained in this prospectus. Therefore, before making your investment decision, you should carefully read both this prospectus and any prospectus supplement together with the documents referred to in “Where You Can Find More Information” and “Incorporation by Reference.”

In this prospectus, unless we indicate otherwise or the context requires, references to the “company,” “we,” “us,” and “our” refer only to Albany International Corp. and do not include its subsidiaries unless stated clearly from the context.

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus, any prospectus supplement and the documents incorporated by reference contain “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). The words “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “estimate,” “plan,” “project,” “may,” “will,” “should,” and variations of such words or similar expressions are intended, but are not the exclusive means, to identify forward-looking statements. Because forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements.

There are a number of risks, uncertainties, and other important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to:

- Conditions in the industries in which our Machine Clothing and Albany Engineered Composites segments compete, along with the general risks associated with macroeconomic conditions;
- In the Machine Clothing segment, greater than anticipated declines in the demand for publication grades of paper or lower than anticipated growth in other paper grades;
- In the Albany Engineered Composites segment, unanticipated reductions in demand, delays, technical difficulties or cancellations in aerospace programs that are expected to drive growth;
- Failure to achieve or maintain anticipated profitable growth in our Albany Engineered Composites segment; and
- Other risks and uncertainties detailed in our Annual Reports on Form 10-K and other periodic reports.

The forward-looking statements contained in this prospectus, any prospectus supplement, the documents incorporated by reference or elsewhere are based on our current expectations and assumptions regarding our business, the economy and other future conditions and are subject to risks, uncertainties and changes in circumstances that may cause events or our actual activities or results to differ significantly from those expressed in any forward-looking statement. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, we cannot guarantee future events, results, actions, levels of activity, performance or achievements. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated by the forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and we undertake no obligation to update them publicly in light of new information or future events.

You should carefully consider the risks specified under the caption “Risk Factors” in any prospectus supplement and the documents incorporated by reference and in subsequent public statements or reports we file with or furnish to the SEC, before making any investment decision with respect to our securities. If any of these trends, risks or uncertainties actually occurs or continues, our business, financial condition or results of operations could be materially adversely affected, the trading prices of our securities could decline and you could lose all or part of your investment. All forward-looking statements attributable to us or persons acting on our behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement.

ALBANY INTERNATIONAL CORP.

Albany International Corp. and its subsidiaries are engaged in two business segments.

The Machine Clothing (“MC”) segment supplies permeable and impermeable belts used in the manufacture of paper, paperboard, tissue and towel, pulp, nonwovens, fiber cement and several other industrial applications.

We design, manufacture, and market paper machine clothing (used in the manufacturing of paper, paperboard, tissue, and towel) for each section of the paper machine and for every grade of paper. We manufacture and sell approximately twice as much paper machine clothing worldwide than any other company. Paper machine clothing products are customized, consumable products of technologically sophisticated design that utilize polymeric materials in a complex structure. The design and material composition of paper machine clothing can have a considerable effect on the quality of paper products produced and the efficiency of the paper machines on which it is used. Principal paper machine clothing products include forming, pressing, and dryer fabrics, and process belts. A forming fabric assists in paper sheet formation and conveys the very wet sheet (more than 75 percent water) through the forming section. Press fabrics are designed to carry the sheet through the press section, where water is pressed from the sheet as it passes through the press nip. In the dryer section, dryer fabrics manage air movement and hold the sheet against heated cylinders to enhance drying. Process belts are used in the press section to increase dryness and enhance sheet properties, as well as in other sections of the machine to improve runnability and enhance sheet qualities.

The MC segment also supplies customized, consumable fabrics used in the manufacturing process in the pulp, corrugator, nonwovens, fiber cement, building products, and tannery and textile industries.

We sell our Machine Clothing products directly to customer end-users in countries across the globe. Our products, manufacturing processes, and distribution channels for MC are substantially the same in each region of the world in which we operate. The sales of paper machine clothing forming, pressing, and dryer fabrics, individually and in the aggregate, accounted for more than 10 percent of our consolidated net sales during one or more of the last three years. No individual customer accounted for as much as 10 percent of MC net sales in any of the periods presented.

The Albany Engineered Composites (“AEC”) segment, including Albany Safran Composites, LLC (“ASC”), in which our customer SAFRAN Group owns a 10 percent noncontrolling interest, provides highly engineered, advanced composite structures to customers in the commercial and defense aerospace industries. AEC’s largest aerospace customer is the SAFRAN Group, and sales to SAFRAN (consisting primarily of fan blades and cases for CFM International’s LEAP engine) accounted for approximately 19 percent of the company’s consolidated net sales in 2018. AEC, through ASC, is the exclusive supplier to this program of advanced composite fan blades and cases under a long-term supply contract. Other significant programs served by AEC include the F-35, Boeing 787, Sikorsky CH-53K, and JASSM programs. AEC also supplies vacuum waste tanks for the Boeing 7-Series programs and specialty components for the Rolls Royce lift fan on the F-35, as well as the fan case for the GE9X engine. In 2018, approximately 25 percent of the AEC segment’s sales were related to U.S. government contracts or programs.

We are incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware and are the successor to a New York corporation originally incorporated in 1895, which was merged into the company in August 1987 solely for the purpose of changing the domicile of the corporation. Our headquarters are located at 216 Airport Drive, Rochester, New Hampshire and our general telephone number is (603) 330-5850. We maintain an Internet site at <http://www.albint.com>. Our website and the information contained on that site, or connected to that site, are not incorporated by reference into this prospectus.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in our Class A Common Stock involves risks. Before deciding to invest in our stock, you should carefully consider the discussion of risks and uncertainties under the heading “Risk Factors” contained in any applicable prospectus supplement and in the documents that are incorporated by reference in this prospectus. See the sections entitled “Where You Can Find More Information” and “Incorporation by Reference” on page 10. The occurrence of any of these risks might cause you to lose all or part of your investment in the offered securities.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Except as otherwise set forth in a prospectus supplement, we intend to use the net proceeds from any sale of our Class A Common Stock by this prospectus for our general corporate purposes. The net proceeds may be invested temporarily in short-term marketable securities or applied to repay short-term debt until they are used for their stated purpose.

Unless otherwise set forth in a prospectus supplement, we will not receive any proceeds from any sale of our Class A Common Stock by a selling stockholder.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

We may periodically issue shares of our Class A Common Stock. The description below summarizes the general terms of our Class A Common Stock. This section is a summary, and it does not describe every aspect of our Class A Common Stock. This summary is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, reference to the provisions of our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (“Certificate of Incorporation”) and our Bylaws.

Our Certificate of Incorporation authorizes the issuance of up to 100 million shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share, 25 million shares of Class B Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share (the “Class B Common Stock”), and 2,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $5.00 per share (the “preferred stock”). As of May 8, 2019, we had approximately 29,060,072 shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding, 3,233,998 shares of Class B Common Stock outstanding, and no shares of preferred stock outstanding. The Class B Common Stock is convertible into an equal number of shares of Class A common Stock at any time. As of May 8, 2019, 3,406,395 shares of Class A common Stock were reserved for the conversion of Class B Common Stock and the exercise of stock options. None of our outstanding common stock has been designated as non-voting.

Common Stock

Voting Rights. At every meeting of the shareholders of the company (or with respect to any action by written consent in lieu of a meeting of shareholders), each share of Class A Common Stock is entitled to one (1) vote (whether voted in person by the holder thereof or by proxy or pursuant to a shareholders’ consent) and each share of Class B Common Stock is entitled to ten (10) votes (whether voted in person by the holder thereof or by proxy or pursuant to a shareholders’ consent). Except as otherwise required by law or by the company’s Certificate of Incorporation or as determined by our board of directors, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock vote together as a single class and have the exclusive right to vote on all matters on which common shareholders are entitled to vote, including the election of directors. The authorization, issuance, sale or distribution by the company of shares of Class B Common Stock require (1) the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock, voting as a separate class, and (2) the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Class B Common Stock, voting as a separate class. The affirmative vote of the Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock will not be required for the distribution of Class B Common Stock to the holders of Class B Common Stock in connection with a stock dividend or split up, subdivision, combination or reclassification of shares of common stock of the company, if Class A Common Stock is concurrently and proportionately distributed to holders of Class A Common Stock (such a distribution of Class A Common Stock to be deemed proportionate under the company’s Certificate of Incorporation if the number of shares of Class A Common Stock distributed with respect to each share of Class A Common Stock equals the number of shares of Class B Common Stock distributed with respect to each share of Class B Common Stock; such concurrent, proportionate distributions are hereinafter collectively referred to as a “Pro Rata Distribution”).

Transferability. Shares of Class A Common Stock are not subject to any restrictions on transfer. Shares of Class B Common Stock are not subject to any restrictions on transfer, except that any transfer of such shares other than a Permitted Transfer (as defined below), such as each transfer by a selling stockholder at the closing of an offering described in this prospectus or any prospectus supplement, will automatically result in conversion of such shares transferred to shares of Class A Common Stock, effective upon such transfer. A “Permitted Transfer” of Class B Common Stock means any of the following: (i) a transfer of such shares to the company; (ii) a transfer of such shares by the holder thereof to another holder of Class B Common Stock; (iii) a transfer of such shares resulting from the death of the holder thereof to another holder of Class B Common Stock; and (iv) any other Permitted Transfer as defined in our Certificate of Incorporation.

Dividends. Dividends may be paid upon the Class A Common Stock as and when declared by the board of directors out of any funds legally available therefor; provided, however, that no stock dividend may be paid upon the Class A Common Stock unless such stock dividend is part of a Pro Rata Distribution. Shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock will be treated equally for purposes of dividends except with respect to any stock dividend which is part of a Pro Rata Distribution.

Liquidation, Dissolution, and Winding Up. Upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the company, whether voluntary or involuntary, and after the holders of preferred stock of each series have been paid in full the amounts to which they respectively are entitled or such other provision has been made for the holders of the preferred stock of each series as may have been determined by the board of directors pursuant to its authority to determine, before issuance, the rights upon voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the company of series of the preferred stock, the remaining net assets of the company will be distributed to holders of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock ratably as one class.

Preferred Stock

Under our Certificate of Incorporation, our board of directors may issue shares of preferred stock from time to time as shares of one or more series of preferred stock, and the board of directors is authorized from time to time prior to the issuance thereof to fix the number of shares which will constitute each such series and to fix the designation and relative rights, preferences and limitations of such series, subject to the limitation that, if the stated dividends and amounts payable on liquidation are not paid in full, the outstanding shares of all series of preferred stock will share ratably in the payment of dividends including accumulations, if any, in accordance with the sums which would be payable on such shares if all dividends were declared and paid in full, and in any distribution of assets other than by way of dividends in accordance with the sums which would be payable on such distribution if all sums payable were discharged in full. This may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change of control of our company by, among other things, increasing the number of shares necessary to gain control of the company. There were no shares of preferred stock outstanding as of May 8, 2019.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Provisions of Our Certificate of Incorporation and Our Bylaws

Our Certificate of Incorporation and our Bylaws contain provisions that may delay, defer or discourage another party from acquiring control of us. We expect that these provisions will discourage coercive takeover practices or inadequate takeover bids. These provisions are also designed to encourage persons seeking to acquire control of us to first negotiate with the board of directors, which we believe may result in an improvement of the terms of any such acquisition in favor of our stockholders. However, they may also discourage acquisitions that some stockholders may favor. These provisions include:

Authorized but Unissued or Undesignated Capital Stock. A large quantity of authorized but unissued shares may deter potential takeover attempts because of the ability of our board of directors to authorize the issuance of some or all of these shares to a friendly party, or to the public, which would make it more difficult for a potential acquirer to obtain control of us. This possibility may encourage persons seeking to acquire control of us to negotiate first with our board of directors. The authorized but unissued stock may be issued by the board of directors in one or more transactions. In this regard, our Certificate of Incorporation grants the board of directors broad power to establish the rights and preferences of authorized and unissued preferred stock. The issuance of shares of preferred stock pursuant to the board of directors' authority described above could decrease the amount of earnings and assets available for distribution to holders of common stock and adversely affect the rights and powers, including voting rights, of such holders and may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change of control. The board of directors does not intend to seek stockholder approval prior to any issuance of preferred stock, unless otherwise required by law.

Advance Notice Procedures. Our Bylaws establish advance notice procedures with respect to stockholder proposals and the nomination of candidates for election as directors, other than nominations made by or at the direction of the board of directors. In order for any matter to be "properly brought" before a meeting, a stockholder will have to comply with advance notice requirements and provide us with certain information.

Generally, to be timely, a stockholder's notice must be received at our principal executive offices not earlier than 180 days prior, and not later than 100 days before, the first anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting of stockholders. Our Bylaws also specify requirements as to the form and content of a stockholder's notice.

These provisions may have the effect of deterring hostile takeovers or delaying or preventing changes in control of our management or of us, such as a merger, reorganization or tender offer. These provisions are intended to enhance the likelihood of continued stability in the composition of our board of directors and its policies and to discourage certain types of transactions that may involve an actual or threatened acquisition of us. These provisions are designed to reduce our vulnerability to an unsolicited acquisition proposal. The provisions are also intended to discourage certain tactics that may be used in proxy fights. However, such provisions could have the effect of discouraging others from making tender offers for our shares and, as a consequence, they may also inhibit fluctuations in the market price of our shares of common stock that could result from actual or rumored takeover attempts.

Business Combinations with Interested Stockholders

Section 203 of the DGCL generally prohibits certain business combination transactions between a Delaware corporation and any “interested stockholder” owning 15% or more of the corporation’s outstanding voting stock for a period of three years after the date on which the stockholder became an interested stockholder, unless:

- the board of directors approves, prior to the date, either the business combination or the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder;
- upon consummation of the transaction in which the stockholder becomes an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the shares of the voting stock of the corporation including for purposes of determining the voting stock outstanding (but not the outstanding voting stock owned by the interested stockholder) shares owned by persons who are directors and officers and certain employee benefit plans; or
- at or subsequent to the time at which the stockholder became an interested stockholder, the business combination with the interested stockholder is approved by the board of directors and also approved at a stockholders’ meeting by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of the corporation’s voting stock other than shares held by the interested stockholder.

Under Delaware law, a “business combination” includes a merger, asset sale or certain other transactions resulting in a financial benefit to the interested stockholder.

Limitation of Liability and Indemnification of Officers and Directors

Our Certificate of Incorporation provides that no director will be personally liable to us or any of our stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent such exemption from liability or limitation thereof is not permitted under the DGCL. Our Bylaws generally provide that we will indemnify any person who is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, or who is called or threatened to be called to give testimony (whether during pre-trial discovery, at trial or otherwise) in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding of any kind, whether civil, criminal or investigative, including an action by or in the right of the company, by reason of the fact that such person is or was our director, officer, employee or agent, or is or was serving at our request as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. Expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or agent in defending against such legal proceedings are payable before the final disposition of the action, provided that the director, officer, employee or agent undertakes to repay us if it is later determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification. Our Bylaws also provide that we may, by action of our board of directors, execute and deliver indemnification agreements with any person or persons whom we have the power to indemnify under applicable law and with such provisions as our board of directors may approve and as are not prohibited by applicable law. We have entered into customary indemnification agreements with each of our directors that provide them, in general, with customary indemnification in connection with their service to us or on our behalf.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

We or the selling stockholders may sell our Class A Common Stock at prices then prevailing or related to the then current market price or at negotiated prices. The offering price of our Class A Common Stock from time to time will be determined by us or the selling stockholders, as applicable, and, at the time of the determination, may be higher or lower than the market price of our Class A Common Stock on the NYSE or any other exchange or market.

Our Class A Common Stock may be offered to the public, from time to time, through broker-dealers acting as agent or principal, including through underwriting syndicates represented by one or more managing underwriters or directly by one or more of such firms in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. We and the selling stockholders each may agree to indemnify an underwriter, broker-dealer or agent against certain liabilities related to the selling of our Class A Common Stock, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

At any time a particular offer of shares of Class A Common Stock covered by this prospectus is made, a revised prospectus or prospectus supplement, if required, will set forth the aggregate amount of shares of Class A Common Stock covered by this prospectus being offered and the terms of the offering, including the name or names of any underwriters, dealers or agents. or prospectus supplement. Any such required prospectus or prospectus supplement, and, if necessary, a post-effective amendment to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, will be filed with the SEC to reflect the disclosure of additional information with respect to the distribution of our Class A Common Stock covered by this prospectus.

To facilitate the offering of shares covered by this prospectus, certain persons participating in the offering may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of our Class A Common Stock. This may include over-allotments or short sales of our Class A Common Stock, which involve the sale by persons participating in the offering of more Class A Common Stock than we or the selling stockholders sold to them. In these circumstances, these persons would cover such over-allotments or short positions by making purchases in the open market or by exercising their option to purchase additional shares, if any. In addition, these persons may stabilize or maintain the price of our Class A Common Stock by bidding for or purchasing our Class A Common Stock in the open market or by imposing penalty bids, whereby selling concessions allowed to dealers participating in the offering may be reclaimed if our Class A Common Stock sold by them is repurchased in connection with stabilization transactions. The effect of these transactions may be to stabilize or maintain the market price of our Class A Common Stock at a level above that which might otherwise prevail in the open market. These transactions may be discontinued at any time.

The specific terms of any lock-up provisions in respect of any given offering will be described in the applicable prospectus supplement.

In the ordinary course of their business activities, any underwriter, broker-dealer or agent and their respective affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers and may at any time hold long and short positions in such securities and instruments. Such investment and securities activities may involve our securities and other instruments. Any underwriter, broker-dealer or agent and their respective affiliates may also engage in transactions with or perform services for us or provide other types of financing to us in the ordinary course of their business.

To the extent required, this prospectus may be amended and/or supplemented from time to time to describe a specific plan of distribution.

To comply with applicable state securities laws, our Class A Common Stock covered by this prospectus will be sold, if necessary, in such jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers.
